AUGUST 1996

NEXT MEETING

Sunday August 18, 1996, 3 o'clock, at Scuppernong Church of Christ, north of Creswell. We will meet in the Fellowship Hall. Why not come a bit early and have time to stroll in the well-kept Churchyard, talk to old friends, and meet some new ones!

Program Chairman Virginia Haire has put together a program focusing on the local Clifton family, friends of many of us since childhood, and their ancestor, Stephen Clifton, who served in the North Carolina Union Volunteers. The program will include the unveiling of a "U.S." marker at the grave of Stephen in the Scuppernong churchyard. The history of this stone, and its appearance at our meeting, makes an interesting story.

Harry Lewis Thompson will speak on the enticements for local young men to cast their lot with the Union, rather than to follow their neighbors into the Confederate service.

Shirleyan Phelps tells us: "If you are descended from the Cliftoⁿ or related lines, please bring your family data to share. A computer and printer will be available for printing group sheets and you can bring a 3.5 formatted floppy (high density) for copying files for your own computer".

GET WELL, RONNIE

We recently learned that fellow-member Ronnie Comstock has been hospitalized. We are relieved to learn, from his pastor, that he is now home, and attended church today (August 11).

Ronnie, you will recall, has both Confederate and Union ancestors, and has shared information on them for some of our Journals. We hope he will be able to be at our next meeting.

ATWOOD

I'm sorry that I can't give an up-date on Atwood Lavenport, who had surgery last month. Will have the latest at next meeting. We hope that he can be with us.

Atwood is trying to find information on one Samuel Davenport, believed to have served in the Union forces. If you can help, please do; what a nice get-well gift that would be!

Shirleyan Phelps took pity on my plea for typing assistance. And I do appreciate it. But, due to my habitual procrastination, I find myself putting the NEWS together just hours before it and the Journal are taken to the printers. So, no chance of taking advantage of Shirleyan's kind offer. Next time, hopefully.

PETTIGREW PAPERS

Talked to Ms. Donna Kelly at the Preservation workshop in Gatesville, a few weeks ago. Ms. Kelly is with the Historic Publications Section of N.C. Archives. She said that others have asked for early consideration of the PAPERS, and that she will convey our concern. She advised us to write to:

Joe Mobley, Administrator
 Historical Publications Section
 Division of Archives & History
 100 East Jones Street
 Raleigh 27601-2807

CEMETERY SURVEY

Ms. Debbie Blake, the new coordinator of the State Cemetery Survey, will be with us at our September meeting. Be thinking of any questions that you may have for Ms Blake. If you have cemetery slides or photos that you'd like to show, please contact Virginia Haire or Ed Norman. More on this in the next NEWS.

THE "OR"

As it seems unlikely that our Board of Directors will be able to meet this week, we will probably not vote on Society sponsorship of a "community" effort to purchase the "Official Records" as a gift to our library until September. We would like the ^aBord's recommendations before voting.

Without having begun formal solicitations, we continue to receive some pledges. Harry Thompson has volunteered to take the proposed project to various Sons of Confederate Veterans chapters. The beauty of this project is that it should appeal equally to all of us, regardless of the color of our uniforms or our faces. The "OR" has something for everyone!

Valerie Hiatt, Director of the Albemarle Regional Library, was a "classmate" at the Gatesville workshop. She said that Albemarle bought the set, for the library at Winton, with "library funds". That, of course, was several years ago, when public funding was not as tight as it is today.

GIRKIN

Harry, at Port O'Plymouth, says that the Museum was recently given a History of the Girkin Family(that may not be the exact title). I don't recall the name of the gentleman who published, and donated, it, but was pleased to see that it was researched by our fellow member Jane Stubbs Bailey, who we know to be a researcher of note. I suggest that we consider this for purchase--- assuming that it is for sale. More later, as we learn more details.

THANKS FOR LETTING US KNOW, PHIL

We had a note from fellow member Phil Coulter today. His April Journal Journal arrived sans all but the back cover. Replacement will be in the mail tomorrow, Phil.

We have "sweated" the April mailing. Our publisher(printer, I mean) in Greenville was having what the kids would call a "bad hair day", and , among other things, too-short staples were used on a lot of copies. Some were mailed before I realized the seriousness of the problem. The rest were taken back for re-stapeling. The printer swears it won't happen again. If any other of you received an incomplete Journal, please let your Editor know. Replacement--at no cost to you.

Announcements

Scuppernong River Festival, PO Box 449, Columbia, NC 27925, has published BRIDGING GENERATIONS. Tyrrell's Past, Present, and Future. The book will be unveiled at the Scuppernong River Festival in October. History, folklore, goasts, old remedies; "a great coffee table book". $22.00 to the above address. And don't forget the Festival! On Festival Day, Columbia is a fun-mix of Disneyland and the Smithsonian!

Family Research Society, Rt 1 Box 159, Belvidere, NC 27919 presents GENEALOGY and HISTORY: The Basics of Research, Part IV. Virginia Dare Bldg, Elizabeth City, Saturday October 12, 1996. Speakers from NC Archives, Old Dominion U., and Charlton W. Roundtree, Quaker researcher and local historian. $12.00/person; $6.50 lunch, to above address, with address, phone, and surname list before 20 September.

See map in this issue for directions to Scuppernong Church. You may ignore the penciled "Tornado" route of 11/7/88; no tornado is expected on our meeting day. Of course, we don't guarantee that. Your editor, a native of Creswell, can attest that anything can happen in Scuppernong Township--and probably will. But can you think of a safer place to be, than Scuppernong Church?

AUGUST JOURNAL

When we asked Roxie Lay for an article on her granddad, Jacob Spier, we had a hunch that she would "delegate" to Daughter, Brenda Crowley. Of course she did: quickly, efficiently, and with happy results. Our thanks to both of them. We regret that the pictures defied repeated efforts of our scanner, and are a bit "wavey". Our thanks to Phyllis Davenport for lending her originals of the Mountain Hill house(see inside back cover).

We acknowledge that Betsey Modlin's Latham article appeared, some months ago, in Beaufort County's "Pamteto Tracings". We have had Betsey's article since last November, but August was our first chance to use it.
